South Vancouver Neighbourhood House

Call for Expression of Interest for Men's Group Facilitation Training

Consultant for South Vancouver Neighbourhood House (SVNH)

Posting period: June 5 to June 19, 2017

Project Description: Four Neighbourhood Houses in Vancouver (South Van, Little Mountain, Kitsilano, & Mount Pleasant) are looking for an experienced facilitator to train men in our communities on how to lead men's peer support groups with the outcome of violence prevention. We recognize the great talent that lies with our volunteers and participants. Through this training, a group of engaged male leaders will build their capacity to facilitate men's programs in an engaging and effective manner. They will learn to facilitate sensitive conversations and help men to support one another to ultimately improve family relationships.

Deliverables include:

- Develop recruitment strategy
- Coordination of recruitment of men to be facilitators ("participants")
- Development of training curriculum including topics related to violence prevention
- Coordination and implementation of the training sessions (3-4 days)
- Coordination and implementation of a follow up session after the new facilitators have lead a group (4 sessions)

Qualifications:

- Must have solid experience in training facilitators and group facilitation (minimum 2 years')
- Experience working with multi-barriered men and people from diverse backgrounds
- Training and experience in social services field, counseling, and/or community support
- Excellent communications skills, including conflict management
- Experience with or understanding of Neighbourhood House movement an asset
- Proven experience to work independently, plan and implement programs, and maintain positive relationships

Timeline:

June 2017 - start project.

July 2017 - recruit male facilitators.

August 2017 - 3 to 4 days of training.

November 2017 – half day follow up session.
